Welcome Dinner
Tonight join a welcome dinner as we savor the local cuisine in a traditional restaurant perfectly harmonized with wines from Quinta do Vallado.

Porto Wine and Chocolate tastings
Visit Galafura and Douro Museum

São Leonardo da Galafura Viewpoint is located in between Vila Real and Peso da Régua, on a place of Great natural beauty over the amazing Douro River, confirming the excellence of the ancient and historical Trás-os-Montes region. Here, the sights are breathtaking, with the Douro River leading the attentions, trimmed by the steep soils where the famous Douro wine is planted, providing wonderful landscapes. Located at about 640 meters high, it is worth observing this region’s beauty from this point.
Visit and Tasting to Quinta do Vallado’s Wine Cellars
A journey deep into the heart of the Douro Valley. An immersive experience in the world's oldest demarcated wine region. You will have a chance to visit one of the region's most advanced wineries, where you can witness state of the art technology and jaw-dropping architecture. We'll take you through all the processes grapes are subject to, from harvest to bottle. Visit also the barrique cellar, where our best wines are ageing. At the end of the tour, you'll enjoy a tasting of a wide range of wines, including whites, reds and ports.

LEISURE DAY - JANUARY 2
Leisure Day in Porto

Enjoy the beautiful architecture and history of Porto at your own pace. Discover Porto’s neighborhoods with an optional yellow bus tour of the city, or visit one of Porto’s most famous coffee houses. This Oporto landmark is an essential stop in the city. It is known throughout Portugal, and is also listed among Europe’s top historical coffeehouses (as well as one of the world’s top 10 most beautiful cafés). It was born with the name "Elite," which was soon changed to "Majestic." Its beautiful decoration justifies the second name: mirrors, cherubs, chandeliers, marble, and wood. It was once the meeting place for artists and politicians, and is still today often visited by illustrious figures.
